

TORONTO'S BODY MODIFICATION SCHOOL

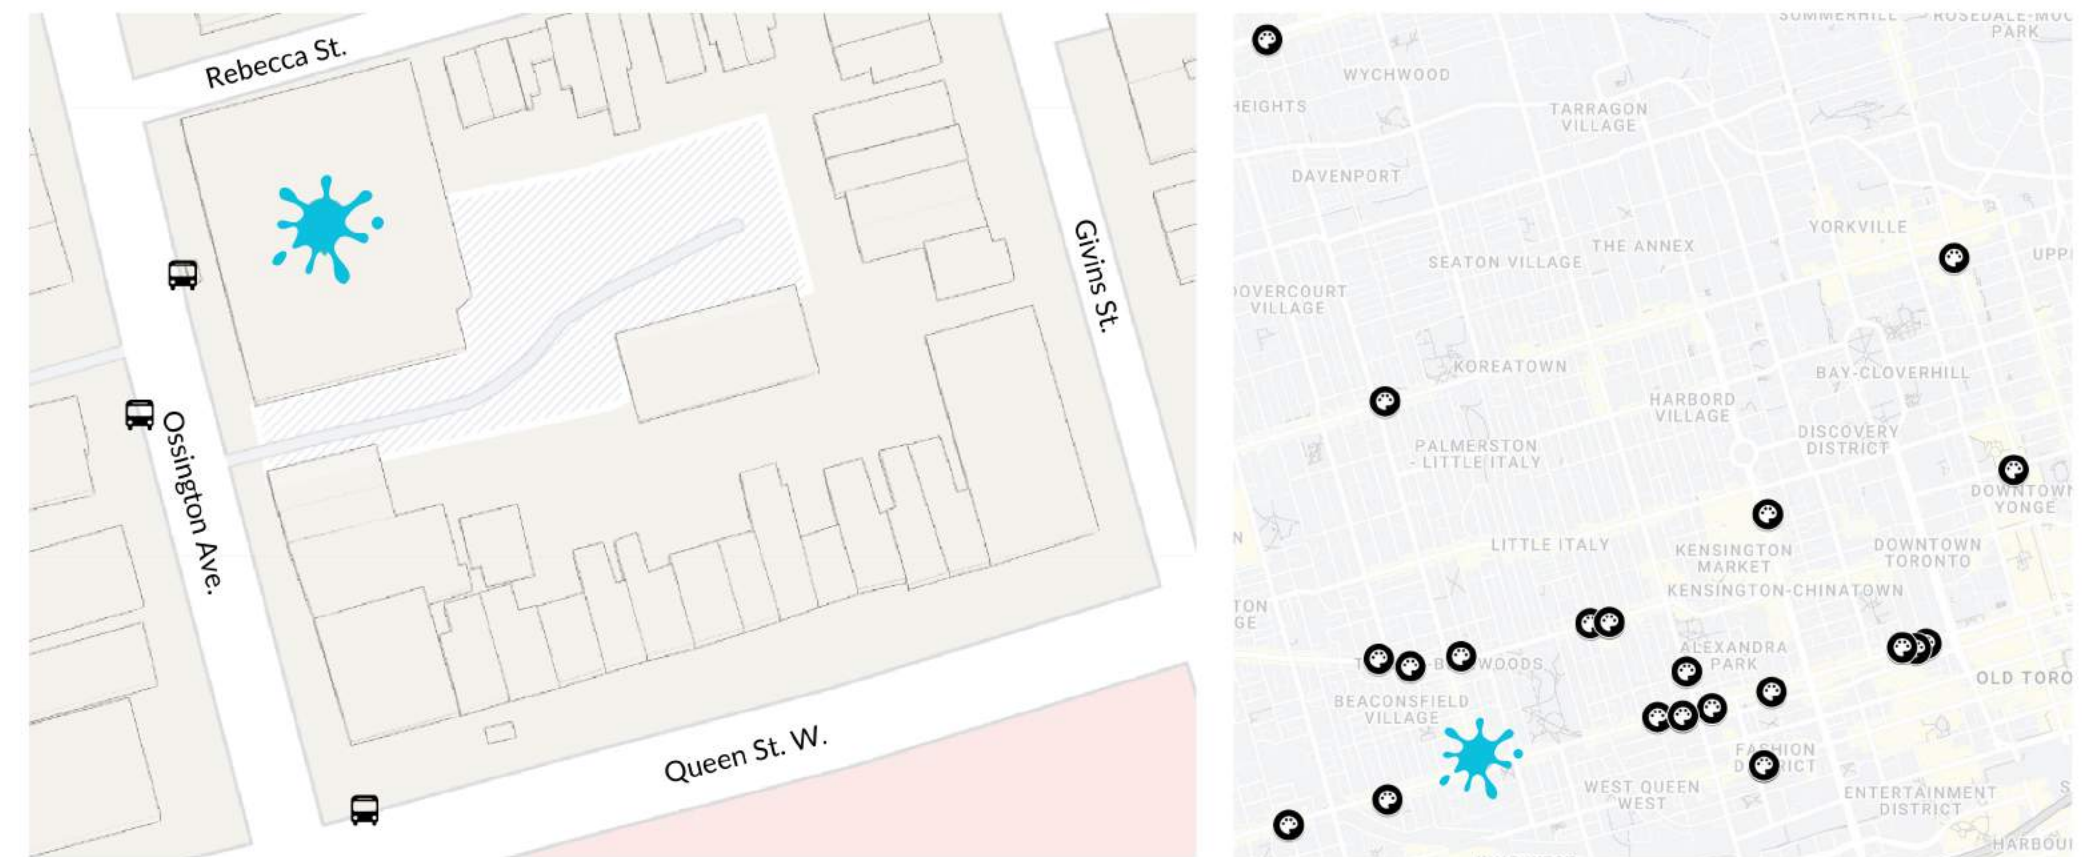

CHELSEA SMITH

Welcome to Toronto's body modification school. Where formal education enhances the creative experience between emerging (body modification) artists and their clients. The development of the school will promote much-needed governance and credibility within the respective industry. The design of the school, supported by the curriculum provides space for students to utilize activity-based learning, thus mirroring current apprenticeships.

THE LOCATION

21 Ossington Ave, Toronto, Ontario.
